AA Field Target Match

Match Results, March 13, 1999

Setting the Right Course

by David Still

George Gardner prepared Saturday's match course to be similar to the second day of the Georgia Southern Regionals. The course also served as a time trial to determine match length for the 40 target course. The course was found to be well designed challenging both Spring-Piston and Precharged competitors.

Congratulations to George Gardner, match winner with a score of 38 of 40 targets. Way to go George. Ken Hughes took first place in the Precharged Class with a score of 36 of 40 targets.

Winston Smith won first place honors in Spring-Piston Class with a score of 27 of 40 shots. Bennie Davis took second place with a score of 16 of 40 targets.

GSR Preparation Continues

Match Site Prep, March 13, 1999

Special thanks to Walt Roller for spending a weekend customizing lanes and sight-in areas with stone. Monthly match competitors were surprised to find lanes finished with level pebble seating areas and the sight-in range completely resurfaced with stone. Great job Walt.

After Saturday's match, volunteers erected a tarp extending sight-in area an additional 60 percent. Thanks to Doug Vinson, Ken Hughes, Winston Smith, Walt Roller, David Still, Bennie Davis and George Gardner the range extension was completed in less than 45 minutes.

Please note on second page that George Gardner has set aside additional dates for clean up efforts in preparation of the Georgia Southern Regionals.
