AA Field Target Match

Match Results, June 3 and 10, 2000

Competition Gets Tougher

by David Still

Three competitors attended June's first practice match (6/3). A three-way tie resulted in each shooter scoring 50 of 60 shots.

Five shooters attended Saturday's AA match (6/10). Ken Hughes' NJR-100 jammed at the site-in range and he did not compete in the match. Walt Roller won with a score of 58 of 60. David Still captured First Place in the PreCharged Class with a score of 50 of 60 shots.

Joel Hansel took First Place in the Spring Piston Class with a score of 40 of 60. Bennie Davis came in Second Place with a 39 of 60 shots.

World/Nationals Match Nears

June 20, 2000

Tommy Garland and Walt Roller have been increasing the difficulty of the course using the Brad Troyer's Course Difficulty Calculation. With the combined World's and National Field Target match in August, the AA members have been pushing the limits of their equipment and shooting abilities in preparation for the international meet.

Even a tougher course did not prevent Walt Roller from a near perfect score, missing only two standing shots.
